GUEST SPEAKER

Daniel Esquibel, senior manager, Regulatory Services, Life Sciences & Health Care with Deloitte will present the second seminar in the 2018 series.

With more than 17 years of experience in the health care industry, Daniel works with health care providers, health plans, life sciences companies, investors and other stakeholders to identify factors that will drive health care in the future.

He is actively monitoring the legislative and regulatory agenda for health care and life sciences for 2018, including the implementation of MACRA.

The presentation will be provided at multiple on-site locations, as well as via Webex.

PLEASE RSVP WITH YOUR LOCATION OF CHOICE TO eftjona.murray@beaumont.org.

If you'd like to join via Webex, a link will be provided upon registration.
